

COVID-19 Winter Safety

written by Lauri Moon | January 4, 2021

We are in the COVID-19 winter wave and it's up to employers to do everything they can to prevent the transmission of the virus in the workplace now and for months to come.

Join KPA's Risk Management Consultant, Micah O'Shaughnessy, CSP, ASP as he reviews some of the latest updates related to COVID-19.

Together, we'll discuss practical guidance and winter prevention strategies that employers can use to protect employees, customers, and the reputation of your business, including:

- The latest: What we know about COVID-19 and lessons learned
- Frequently cited OSHA standards for COVID-19 inspections
- Winter safety guidelines to prevent coronavirus spread at your facility
