

How Can Employers Prepare for a Post-COVID-19 Workplace

written by Lauri Moon | April 21, 2020

The spread of the novel Coronavirus may diminish soon, requiring employers to begin reopening their businesses and welcoming back employees. Employers need to be ready to confront the issues concerning a post-pandemic workplace. Business guidance and legal requirements are changing rapidly. This webinar will discuss changes implemented that employers must be ready for in the coming weeks.

This webinar session will cover:

- Navigating the End of Shelter in Place Orders and when employees come back to work
- Issues concerning safety of employees
- How the workplace will change after COVID-19 retreats
- What potential legal claims employers could face
