

Leadership Lessons from a Pandemic - Leading a Changing Workplace

written by Lauri Moon | March 3, 2021

The COVID-19 pandemic took the world by storm. Under unprecedented circumstances, employers were forced to make decisions that may impact their workforce for years. Skilled leadership took center stage during these tumultuous times. Great leaders thrived. Others failed.

Businesses are beginning to reopen, presenting employers with new challenges as part of the next phase of the COVID-19 pandemic. Business guidance and legal requirements are changing rapidly.

This session will explore best leadership practices from the pandemic and what employers can glean from this time to lead a workplace forever changed. This webinar session will cover:

- How to Prepare for Taking Temperatures and Making Spatial Changes in the Workplace
- Handling Employees that Refuse to Work
- Assessing the Workplace for PPE, including face coverings
- What potential legal claims employers could face, including OSHA claims
- Handling suspected or confirmed COVID-19 cases in the workplace
- Recording and reporting COVID-19 cases to OSHA
- COVID-19 Vaccine Issues
- How to prepare for the new post-pandemic workplace
