

New Administration, New Changes for OSHA

written by Lauri Moon | May 4, 2021

In January 2021, President Biden began taking actions that have and will continue to impact employers. Given the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the President and OSHA have already made changes designed to improve workplace safety, a key focus of the Biden administration.

This webinar will provide employers a discussion of changes that have already taken place and what else to expect from the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA), the agency charged with protecting America's workforce, over the next four years.

Some topics will include:

- New OSHA National Emphasis Program (NEP)
- Recordkeeping relating to COVID
- Status of in-person inspections and the process
