

The Pulse of Performance Management 2019: The Evolution of Performance Management

written by Lauri Moon | May 8, 2019

Which vendors received the highest ratings from their customers for budgeting, consolidation, reporting, dashboards and analytics? How is AI reshaping performance management solutions? What is the impact of all the recent investment and acquisition activity in the space?

Now in its 16th year, this annual web event will quickly get you and your team up to speed on the latest in budgeting, planning, forecasting, consolidation, reporting and analytics. This information will enable you to confidently embark on a new performance management project or identify opportunities to enhance an existing one.

Note: this is a cross-industry webcast.

The following information, all new or updated for 2019, will be covered:

- How performance management solutions have become more comprehensive, connected, and collaborative
- The expanding role of Artificial Intelligence in providing better analysis
- The success or failure of solution marketplaces in delivering value
- The relationship between forecast accuracy and forecasting methodology
- The role of spreadsheets in performance management solutions
- Updated 'Best Fit' tags identifying the best vendors for a particular requirement
- The key vendors to consider for your performance management project will be identified and reviewed based on their core and advanced functionality, latest enhancements, market success, and customer satisfaction with a focus on ease of use

BPM Partners will share:

- BPM Partners' core list of performance management vendors for 2019
- The always highly anticipated BPM Pulse 2019 vendor customer satisfaction ratings
- The 2nd Annual BPM Pulse Awards for Top Rated Vendors
