

Strategic Recycling Program - Webinar

written by admin | May 17, 2016

This Webinar will discuss PennDOT's procedure to evaluate and approve new products and materials for transportation construction projects. The webinar will also discuss the relationship between this process and PennDOT's ongoing implementation of the Strategic Recycling Program (SRP), which utilizes recycled content materials in its projects and operations.

For more information and to register, please see our Webinar Flyer.